

The Art of Storytelling

THE POWER OF STORYTELLING FOR PERSONAL & CULTURAL TRANSFORMATION

Storytelling is as old as the human imagination. It is an art form that extends beyond entertainment and performance, reaching into the depths of the soul as a reflection of identity, meaning and cultural significance.

In this three-part online workshop with mythologist and storyteller Ben Dennis, you will explore storytelling through fairy tale and the oral tradition; then storytelling through personal narrative; and finally, storytelling as an agent of social transformation.

Journey with Ben as each session builds upon the next. Together, you'll uncover the foundations of storytelling, bring a sense of the mythic to your own personal stories and discover that story has the power to transform the future.
